

Joseph Luneau, Citizen Member, St. Albans City. Mr. Luneau is involved in the management of third-generation family operated car dealerships in St. Albans. He holds a bachelor's from Boston College with a major in history. He has previously served St. Albans City as City Council president, chair of the Development Review Board, and as a representative to the Northwest Regional Planning Commission.