2014 State of Vermont Employee Participation Agreement

I, the participating State of Vermont Employee in the State of Vermont Workplace Community Supported Agriculture Program, agree to all conditions set forth by the farm I choose to participate with. These conditions include and are not limited to:

1. Fulfilling all payment requirements outlined by the farm directly,
2. The participation in being a CSA member through the full given season dates outlined by the farm,
3. Confirmation to pick-up weekly deliveries of the CSA at given state buildings, or an arrangement with the farm directly to ensure this delivery,
4. Assume ownership and responsibility for your CSA share, including all potential physical or health risk, at the time of delivery by the farmer to the worksite location.

This participation agreement is simply a way to ensure conflicts do not arise throughout the season with given farms and State of Vermont Employees. Payments must be arranged individually between each State of Vermont Employee and the CSA Farm directly. The State of Vermont will not be involved in any exchange of payment and/or be responsible for any un-received payments.
