

In-Person 9am-4:30pm in Waterbury

- Morning (9am-12:30am): Level-setting and essential updates
  - Welcome, agenda for the day, connecting exercise (with tie-in to climate impacts that councilors are experiencing) (30 mins)
  - Level-setting presentations and discussion
    - National Climate Assessment and implications for Vermont climate action (Leslie-Ann Dupigny-Giroux) (30 mins)
    - Progress report on Initial Climate Action Plan and Climate Action Office update (Jane Lazorchak) (45 mins)
      - Jane starts with CAO update, what's been happening, including tracking progress tool efforts.
      - David leads exercise to reacquaint councilors with the CAP actions.
      - Jane finishes with outlook for CAO in 2024
    - BREAK (20 mins)
    - State Hazard Mitigation Plan (Stephanie Smith), then connections to the Initial CAP and other essential resilience/adaptation updates (Marian Wolz) (40 mins)
    - Technical work update: Business as Usual work (TJ Poor), other technical (EAN update?). (40 mins)
    - Initial sketch of budget priorities for future work (Sec. Julie Moore) (15 mins)
- Lunch – 12:30pm – 1pm
- Public comment – 1pm – 1:30pm
- Afternoon (1:30pm-4:30pm): Identifying and preparing the priority conversations for the update
  - Review of likely gaps, requirements and timeline for update (45 mins)
    - Review of gaps identified by Initial CAP
    - Review GWSA requirements
    - Overall workplan and timeline
  - Topic-specific breakout conversations to orient sub-committee work. (1.5 hours)
    - By subcommittee – two rotations – go to one where you've been participating, one where you are less versed
    - Orienting question: What are the specific priority topics that require an investment of our time to achieve an updated CAP?
  - Plenary wrap-up (45 mins)
    - Do we have shared clarity around the focus of the CAP update?
    - Are there implications for budget priorities for technical work?