

- ### Coupon Rules
- ▶ They may only be used at participating farmers markets and farm stands.
 - ▶ They may only be used to buy fresh fruits, fresh vegetables and fresh-cut herbs. “Fresh” means just picked – sold raw and unprepared.
 - ▶ Farmers may not give change for a coupon. If what you want costs a little over $6, it’s better to pay the extra in cash than waste part of a coupon. Bring some cash with you!
 - ▶ Anyone who buys or sells a coupon may be disqualified from the program and subject to legal action.
 - ▶ The coupons expire on October 31st of each year.

Farm to Family 2023 Information for Coupon Shoppers

Farm to Family coupons will help you to buy fresh fruits and vegetables, locally grown on Vermont farms.

This brochure includes:

- ⇒ Shopping tips
- ⇒ The rules for using your coupons (e.g., how, where, when and for what)
- ⇒ A harvest calendar that tells you when certain fruits and vegetables are normally available
- ⇒ A list of locations authorized to accept coupons this year

- ▶ Use all your coupons. They help support local farm families.
- ▶ Use your coupons before they expire or locations close. Coupons expire on October 31, but some locations close before then.
- ▶ Don't let a little rain stop you! Locations will be open rain or shine.
- ▶ Get there early. You'll get the best selection early in the day.
- ▶ Plan ahead. The selection of produce and locations dwindles as fall approaches. An early freeze may close a location earlier than expected.
- ▶ Shop the bargains. Some growers sell surplus produce at bargain prices after Labor Day. Buy extra tomatoes, corn or other vegetables to can, freeze and store this winter.
- ▶ Choose well-colored vegetables and fruits. Make sure they are not too soft or too hard.
- ▶ Be adventurous. Buy produce you've never tried before. Ask the farmer how to prepare them!
- ▶ Let your children help choose what foods to buy. They are more likely to eat different, healthy foods that they helped pick out.
- ▶ Bring a large, reusable shopping bag to carry all your produce home!
