

VERMONT HEATING AND ENERGY ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

Seasonal Fuel Assistance Program

Program Description: The Seasonal Fuel Assistance Program helps low-income families pay a portion of their home heating bills. Assistance is for homeowners or renters who pay for heat or who have heat included in the rent (heated renters).

Eligibility Criteria: Monthly GROSS income up to 185% of federal poverty levels (adjusted annually). There are no resource limits.

Benefit Payments: For all eligible households, a single benefit is paid between November and April (firewood / wood pellet payments start in September).

For households who pay for heat and their primary fuel type is oil, kerosene, propane, coal, natural gas, or electric, fuel assistance benefits are paid to the fuel supplier.

For households who pay for heat and their primary fuel type is firewood or wood pellets, benefits are issued to an EBT card for the household.

For households who have heat included in their rent, benefits are issued to an EBT card.

Applications: Please call our Benefits Service Center at 1-800-479-6151 for an application and to find out more. You can also visit our website at: <http://dcf.vermont.gov/benefits/fuel-assistance> for more information. To apply online go to: www.mybenefits.vt.gov
