

Family Supportive Housing

Provider Manual

Updated July 2023

This manual is intended for Family Supportive Housing grantees, administrators and service coordinators who support families within the Vermont Family Supportive Housing program.

The manual provides information about the Family Supportive Housing program, Medicaid and General Fund reimbursement, reporting requirements, training, and documentation. The manual also includes tools and resources to assist grantees develop their Family Supportive Housing program.