Agency of Human Services

December 20th, 2010

Rutland Police Department
Sergeant John Sly
108 Wales St
Rutland, VT 05701

Dear Sergeant Sly:

When your new DataMaster was delivered to your agency we did not provide you with the security tools that you will need to perform any maintenance of your new Instrument.

In this shipment you will find a Security Torx Screwdriver and a Key for the Padlock. Please remember that they are not to be stored with the DataMaster but rather in a secure location at your site.

We are sorry for any inconvenience this may have caused.

Thank You,

Steven Harnois
