Teacher Resources at the Vermont State Archives

SECRETARY OF STATE
STATE ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION

Primary Sources at VSARA

The records in the Vermont State Archives provide evidence of the actions of state government. Primary sources incorporated into lesson plans can enhance student learning. Sources can be evaluated and analyzed to support independent research and to foster information literacy. They can be used to illustrate concepts. Moreover, primary sources place within reach of students the experiences and viewpoints of the people who created the records.

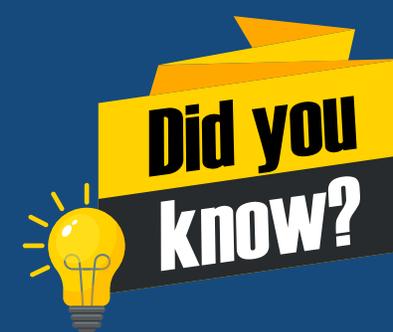

Primary Resources at VSARA include:

- Vermont Constitutions
- Manuscript Vermont State Papers
- Legislative records
- Gubernatorial records
- Court records
- Military records
- Maps
- Photographs
- And more!

Visit VSARA

Bring your class or small groups to the state archives for a tour of our facilities and see records relevant to your class's current research. Call or email to set up a visit.

Online Access

Records are not only accessible from our reference room. We have numerous ways to access primary sources. You can email or call us to help you find what you are looking for.
