Order to Modify Conditions

On December 8, 2014, the Vermont Board of Nursing considered Marley Parson's request for Modification to her Board Order effective October 10, 2011. The Investigative Team did not object to the modification. The State did not object.

The Board finds that A. (11) Practice Under Supervision shall be modified as follows:

Respondent shall practice as a nurse only in a setting where Respondent has direct supervision for the entire shift by a registered nurse that is in good standing with the Board, or by a licensed physician (MD or DO), physician assistant, or the facility's licensed practical nurse clinical manager, all in good standing with their respective Boards.

The Board votes to modify Marley Parson's Board Order.

So Ordered.

Order Reinstating License with Conditions

On July 8, 2013 the Vermont Board of Nursing considered Marley L. Parsons' request for reinstatement of her license as an LPN. The State did not object to reinstatement of Marley L. Parsons' license with conditions.

Based on the representations of the Investigative Team, the Board finds that Marley L. Parsons has met the requirements for reinstatement set by the Board's Order of October 10, 2011 and that reinstatement of Marley L. Parsons' license with the conditions set by that Order is appropriate.

The Board hereby reinstates Marley L. Parsons' license with the conditions set forth in the Order referenced above.

So Ordered.
